

HOW TO GET YOUR NEVADA INSURANCE LICENSE

Individual Resident Producer Requirements

---

To qualify for a resident Nevada state insurance producer license, the applicant must satisfy the following requirements:

- Be 18 years of age or older
- Be a resident of the state of Nevada
- Pass a written examination and file a license application online
- Submit a set of fingerprints

PreLicense Education

Although prelicensing education is not required in Nevada, those looking to earn an insurance license have a significantly higher chance of passing their licensing exam when they complete 1st Academy School of Insurance's exam prep courses. Give yourself the best chance to pass before you take the state exam.

Nevada Pre-License Exam Prep Course

Prelicense Course Delivery

To earn a Nevada insurance license, you must first pass a state licensing exam for each desired line of authority. 1st Academy School of Insurance's exam prep content is based directly on the Nevada licensing exams, so you will be prepared to pass the first time.

Effective January 1, 2020, Prelicensing Education courses will no longer be required for all license types except bail. However, achieving a passing score on a Pearson VUE exam is still required to qualify for Nevada Insurance licenses. 1st Academy School of Insurance can assist you to be fully prepared for success in passing the Nevada Insurance licensing exam.
